ON TEMPERANCE. NO. 5.

Your committee on temperance beg leave to submit the following report:

Having witnessed from time to time the sad and ruinous effects of the manufacture, sale and consumption of spirituous and malt liquors, we therefore insist that our church unite in one common effort to drive that blighting, demon-like monster from our church, then from our homes and the social circles of life. Thus united in one earnest and prayerful effort, as parents, as countrymen, and as followers of Christ, let us strike down this evil that menaces every home and every sacred institution of our land, and thus hasten the universal reign of our Lord over the children of men.

J. A. MCGARITY,

Chairman.

ON GENERAL INTERESTS OF THE CHURCH. NO. 7.

Your committee on the general interests of the church would respectfully submit the following report:

1. We are sure that a thorough enlightenment of our people upon the principles and polity of our church is essential to its highest development and greatest usefulness. We are also sure that in our Church Organs, the Methodist Protestant and the Methodist Recorder, and in our Sabbath school periodicals, we have most efficient auxiliaries to this work. We urge upon our pastors to use every possible effort to bring these periodicals into every Methodist Protestant home, and the Sabbath School literature into every Methodist Protestant Sabbath school in the district.

2. While we know that piety and consecration are essential elements of strength in any church, we do not forget that mental culture and refinement are great aids to usefulness in the ministry and the laity.

We are confident, too, that Western Maryland and Adrian Colleges under the direction of the M. P. Church, are in every way equal to the best colleges of the land, and we insist that our ministry and laity patronize these institutions. We would also call special attention to the great inducements for their patronage, offered to ministers of the M. P. Church.

3. We regret very much to see the falling off in our Foreign Missionary collection. This ought not to be. Let our ministers present this interest with greater earnestness to their congregations. Let them by no means apologize for this collection as a duty imposed upon them by the conference, but rather rejoice that we have the blessed opportunity of sending the gospel to those who sit in darkness.

The enthusiasm of the pastor will aid much in securing a liberal contribution.

4. The Board of Ministerial Education proposes to render financial assistance to young men who come properly recommended by the quarterly conferences and the annual conferences, and who are unable to pay for their collegiate and theological training. Sixty-seven candidates for the ministry were at our institutions last year. Thirty-six of this number received aid. We earnestly recommend that all our pastors co-operate with the Board in endeavoring to secure from our people this year a sum equal to one cent per month, per member, from all our charges. We urge our pastors to exercise the greatest care in the selection of candidates for recommendation to the Board of Ministerial Education, and that the conditions imposed by the general conference be strictly complied with. Full information may be had by corresponding with the secretary, Rev. J. C. Berrien, Steubenville, Ohio.

5. The field for Home Mission work is a wide one, embracing openings in every state and territory in the Union.

The Saviour said: "Let us go into the next towns and preach the word there also." There are many next towns. Never were grander opportunities before any church than there are before the Methodist Protestant Church to-day.

We learn that the Board now has under its control the following:

Mission Churches.....	11
Members.....	575
Sunday Schools.....	14
Scholars .....	1096
Parsonages.....	5
Rental value of Parsonages.....	$ 536.00
Value of Church Property.....	56,700 00
Debt on Church Property .....	9,510.00
Insurance on Church Property .....	20,900.00
Amount raised by Members of Mission.....	1889.83
Amount raised for Mission Sunday Schools .....	727.36

We make the following suggestions:

First. That each pastor endeavor to secure at least one cent a week from each member of his charge for Home Missions.

Second. That each Sunday School take a collection once a quarter for Home Missions, and forward same to Nathan Jones, Corner 7th Ave. and Grant St., Pittsburg, Pa.

Third. We recommend that each pastor use the mite boxes, which can be procured from Rev. Benjamin Stout, Rockford, W. Va.

Each one raising three dollars and forwarding the same to Bro. Stout will receive a nice book as a premium.

We are glad to have with us Rev. Benj. Stout, Rev. J. C. Berrien, and Rev. T. E. Coulborne, and trust that their earnest appeals in behalf of the interests of the church which they represent may stimulate all of us to make still more earnest efforts in behalf of these interests.

REV. R. S. MCGARITY, CHAIRMAN.
